

What is sustainable development?

National guidelines are that “development should meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs”

The focus is on protecting the environment, looking after people’s health and wellbeing, and supporting economic growth

Our objectives in Watlington are to meet these aims and groups of local people have met together to discuss how best to achieve them. Our sustainability objectives have been arrived at through this process